CANTERBURY JUNIORS

The Canterbury Junior Football Club opened their season very well, the whole three grades, "A," "B" and "C" winning their first two matches easily.

The "A" Grade team has a first-class eleven. Holloway, a heady pivot, is a great strengthening point to the Juniors; this boy is only nineteen, and last year played with a leading London Junior team. Bury have had another find in Jimmy Marshall. This boy plays left full back, and is a very sure kick and good tackler. Last season he was captain of Marrickville Avoca.

The "B" and "C" Grade teams have a lot of good talent, and the club has a total membership of 111 players.

The following will represent the "A's" against Campsie United at Campsie Recreation Ground No. 1 on Saturday, May 13, at 3.15 p.m.:

A. Haworth, O. Joass (captain), Marshall, J. Corkhill, A. Brinkley, S. Gray, T. Gilbert, W. Howard, A. Holloway, R. Bennett, W. Croser.

AUSTRALIA'S TEAM QUEENSLAND'S CHANGES.

Changes have been made in the eight Queenslanders selected in Sydney to go to New Zealand with the Australian Soccer team. The goalkeeper, Hamilton, and the centre-half, Peebles, are unable to make the trip. Their places will be taken by W. Bryant (Brisbane City) and C. Shenton (Wynnum). All the other players have definitely decided to accompany the team, excepting Bratten, who has not yet announced his intentions.

N.S.W. CHANGE.

Syd. Storey, of Balmain-Fernleigh, was selected in place of R. Henderson, who found himself unable to go in the team that is to tour New Zealand.

INSURANCE SCHEME

The Management Committee of the Metropolitan Association is to be congratulated on their action in deciding this year to inaugurate a players' insurance fund.

Fifty pounds have been taken from the general funds of the Association and set aside for the payment of claims. The committee have advertised the fact that the fund was in existence, and have informed the players through this, their official medium, that they can insure themselves by forwarding the premium to the Association. A £2 per week benefit allowance is made to players for a 10/- premium, and £1 per week benefit allowance for a 5/- premium.

Numerous accidents have occurred this year, probably well over the average, and yet only one claim has been lodged against the fund.

The trouble is that only a small percentage of the players have taken this trouble to insure. Their clubs, however, should make it compulsory for all their members to join up; otherwise the club will be in the position in the event of accident, of having to organise a benefit for the player who has not insured.

The M.C. desire everybody to take advantage of the scheme. Perhaps in the future the game will be able to pay of itself allowances to injured players, but until we reach that happy position, the players should co-operate wholeheartedly in a project which is only brought forward for their benefit.

EDITORIAL. A CORRECTION.

We hasten to correct a mistake made in the printing of Mr. Freddy Barlow's letter in last week's issue on the question of the size and weight of footballs used in our competitions. The letter said that the weight of a (size 5) ball must be not less than 10 ozs., nor more than 15 ozs. It should have said not less than 13 ozs., nor more than 15 ozs. in weight.

AN OPEN LETTER

Congratulations boys, on your consistent form. You hold premier position in the League Second Division, and you deserve your position. Although goals did not come your way you were the superior side on Saturday in your game against Burns' Anniversary at Mascot Park, and in the latter part of the game you gave the Burns' team a fright. Your persistent attacks on the goal were worthy of success, and it was only sheer bad luck which kept you from scoring. However, you managed to bring a point away. And now, don't mind a bit of criticism. There is room for improved play in the forward line; we want to see more sting in your attacks. You meet Balmmain Scottish on Saturday on your own ground, and you will need to be at the top of your form if you mean to hold your position in the League. Give us your best boys on Saturday, and let your supporters see what you are capable of. It is up to you to do it. Your supporters will be sure to roll up and will expect you to justify your position in the League by registering another win. Play the game for all you are worth, and the best of luck to you.—Yours, etc.,

SUPPORTER.

There was a young lady called Crocker.
It seems it is easy to shock her.
She cut her boy dead
When an item she read
That his dribbling was perfect at Soccer.

PROGRAMME FOR 1923

The programme for 1923 is not yet settled. Mr. E. Lukeman, the hon. sec. of the C.F.A., has not received any intimation from the English Association, that it will send a British team to Australia in 1923. The C.F.A., at the last conference, instructed Mr. Lukeman to cable England, asking for a definite answer to our request that a British team be sent. No reply to that cablegram has yet been received.

The C.F.A. sub-committee is going ahead, however, with the financial arrangements. It hopes to be able to submit shortly a scheme, by which the whole of the assessed estimate may be raised. What is required first is New Zealand's assent to the visit in 1923, then it will be plain sailing. An itinerary will have to be decided upon and submitted to the English Football Association.

Only in the case of no English team will the N.S.W. and Queensland Associations go ahead with the arrangement already made, that a New Zealand team should visit Australia next year.

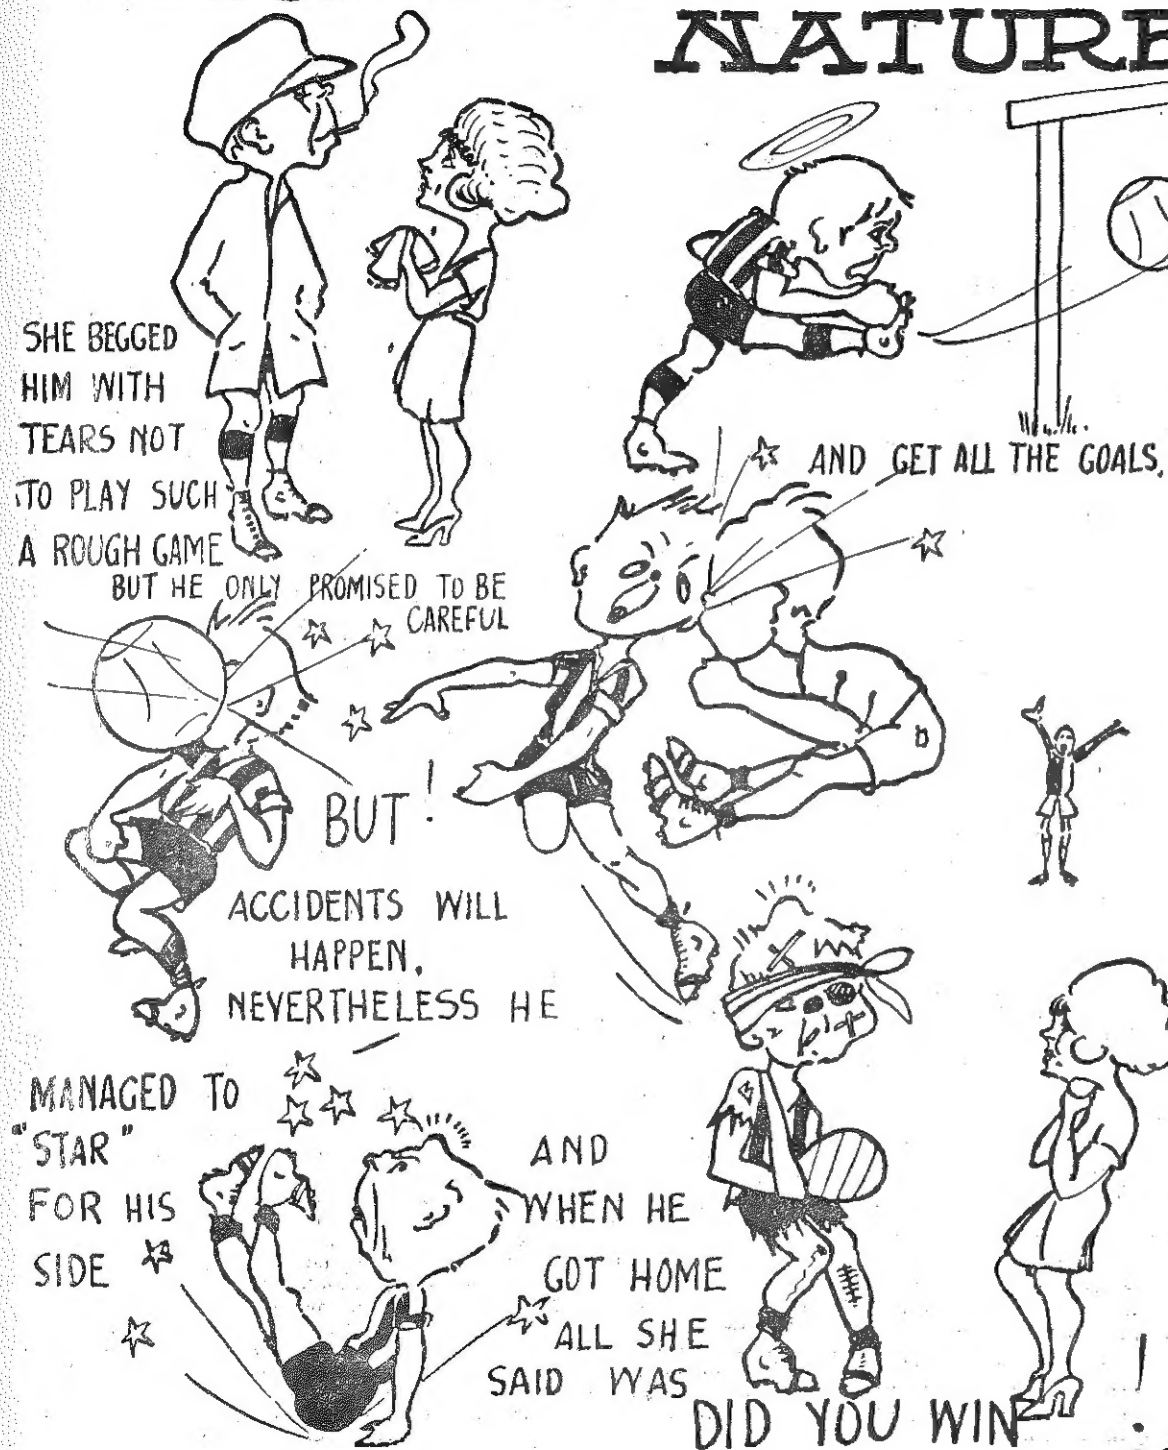

The success of the visit depends greatly on the calibre of the team sent. If New Zealand football is proved to be equal or superior to ours, then the success of that venture is assured.

"DICK" FAIRWEATHER.

"Dick" learned his football with the Balmmain schools; then moving up to Granville he played in the junior ranks, eventually gaining a position in the Magpies, playing half-back. He was a member of the 1915 Magpie team, which won the premiership. Before meeting with the railway accident he was looked upon as one of the best half-backs playing Soccer. This season he is playing inside left for Granville, and his classy play alongside of Jennings, is a great factor in the Magpies' success.—"Maggie."

SOUTH COAST

DEFEAT OF REPRESENTATIVE ELEVEN.

An interesting soccer match was played at Bode's Ground on Saturday afternoon, between the South Coast team, which defeated the Metropolitan last Saturday, at Wentworth Oval, and a team selected by the representatives of the senior clubs of the district, and known as the Secretaries' Team.

The players were: Secretaries' team: Richardson, Catcher, H. Masters, Jones, Drury, W. Johnston, Rooney, R. Johnson, Cheney, Vigel, and S. Learmonth.

South Coast Rep. Team: Boyle, Hunter, Muir, Kerr, Harrigan, Meurant, Thompson, McMahon, Judge, Masters, Ward, Guest.

Nearing full time heavy rain began to fall. The referee blew his whistle, and the game resulted in a win for the Secretaries' Team by 2 to 1. It is only fair to add that Creighton and Jarrett, who played in Sydney, did not play, and that Meurant and Judge played in their places.

PROMINENT PLAYERS.

R. LEADBETTER.

Dick Leadbetter, centre-half of Balmain-Fernleigh since 1917, and centre-half of Balmain prior to that, played last Saturday as full-back for the Blue and Golyd, and proved conclusively that not only is he better suited in that position, but also that he will catch the State selector's eye if he continues to give us the same excellent displays in the future. "Dick," as centre-half, was always regarded as the most virile and the best defensive player in the State in that position; but it has also long been realised that he does not worry about such points as getting his forwards in position before parting with the ball, and giving it to them and not to the opposing backs. Now that he is relieved of these obligations he should do well, as he is fast and can recover quickly; is a clean kicker, capable of executing when necessary, a pretty and effective double-kick; is a sure tackler, and heads the ball well. The unanimous opinion at Wentworth Park was that "Dick" is now a better full-back than a half.

"JOCK" MAITLAND.

"Jock" Maitland, Pyrmont's versatile inside right and ex-State player, is without question one of the most popular and cleanest players playing the round ball game. He has been associated with Pyrmont Club since his arrival in New South Wales in 1913. In that year he played goalie for the 2nd eleven, and, in the following year as goalie for the 1st eleven. Since then he has moved up to the forwards; can play any position in the line, and is now the finest inside right in the State. Last year he toured with the N.S.W. team in Queensland and was top scorer for the team. One of his goals scored in the first test match was acclaimed by Northern cities as one of the finest goals that has been scored in the Northern State. A clever and heady player, he is at all times a consistent goal-getter for his Club. He uses his head well, and is a splendid shot with either foot. His form at present places him well in the running for State honours again this season. He was unavailable for the New Zealand tour.

"DODGER" WHITE.

Was first introduced to Soccer patrons through that famous Navy team, "The Powerful." He is at present playing left half for Gladesville, and still plays a hard forceful game. Although not old in years he is one of the oldest and best-known players in the Metropolitan area. He played with Balmain Kia-ora in 1918, and with Cockatoo in 1919-1920 and 1921. As a left half he affects a peculiar style, mostly getting into position to play the ball with his right foot. His screw kicks are famous for their accuracy, especially his corner kicks. He created a big surprise by "going over" to Gladesville this year, but he has proved of immense value to that team.—"VILLE."

"POKER" CREIGHTON.

One of the best halves on the South Coast, and Captain of all the South Coast representative elevens this season, created a big surprise, by securing a transfer and playing with Balmain Gladstones last Saturday. "Poker" played with Woonona in the local competition, and the Richardson Cup in 1915. In 1916 and 1917 he played second winger in Sydney with Balmain Kia-ora although he has always lived at Woonona. In 1918 he played for Cockatoo; in 1919-'20-'21 and until last Saturday he has played on the Coast. It is understood that Creighton was dissatisfied at being played left half in the recent inter-District games.

A good sport, he does not think he has been fairly treated; it was certainly unfair to place a man left-half who has never played there before; "Poker" played centre-half with Woonona.—"X.Y.Z."

DID YOU KNOW THAT

Pyrmont Club (second grade) in 1914, defeated Botany by 22 goals to nil at Booralie Park. This beats Balmain Scottish's talk of 12 goals against Lancashire.

A. Henderson, one of the original selections in the Australian eleven, has been replaced by Syd. Storey, player of Balmain-Fernleigh, and hon. sec. of N.S.W.S.F.A.

Eddie Ferrier as centre half, is in the position he always filled prior to 1918.

Pyrmont Rangers have a large Troupe minding their goal. The rules only provide for one goal-keeper.

McAlpine, the pride last year of Hornsby Athletic, is playing this year, and showing clever football for Balmain-Scottish.

Angus Forbes has played in turn for Balmain, Balmain Kia-ora, Cockatoo, Canterbury and Balmain Scottish.

"Dutchy" Phillips, now playing inside right for Balmain Fernleigh, was one of the best left wings playing the game when he played for Annandale.

"Billy" Deane played a marvellous match-winning game against the H.M.S. "Renown" in 1920.

The gate at that "Renown" match fixture was £100, and was the first rung in the ladder of Soccer's success in Sydney.

A benefit in West Wallsend realised something like £50 for W. Maunders, the crack centre in the Australian team.

The Australian Soccer team left by the "Ulamaroa" to-day, and will return by the "Manuka," leaving Auckland on July 13th.

Campsie Thistle possess a fine goal-keeper in Jervis.

Campsie are a greatly improved team this year, and hope to win the Second Division.

POT SHOTS

"As he left the field the captain of the Metropolitan eleven was presented with a flower by a young lady." A gillie charms the filly.

"The drive by Hipplesey was cleverly stopped by Cartwright." Couldn't drive the cart right!

"Storey was responsible for the only score of the match." A story with a point.

"Leadbetter frustrated many attempts." Lead-better than they expected.

"Fisher exhibited capital form." Oh, what a lovely figure!

"Gay, Gladesville's centre-half collided with Fairweather and retired." Must have wanted a wet week-end!

* * *

"Notwithstanding the driving rain at Clyde Oval." They still had Fair-weather.

* * *

"Bolus had no difficulty in netting." Holus Bolus!

"Stacey beating Hughes with a good kick." Oh, Mr. Stacey, you are cruel.

"Storey was brought up from back-line to centre-forward." A good up-bringing.

"Canterbury improved after some ragged play." Torn with anguish, perhaps.

* * *

"Again Hipplesey sent in a fine shot." Hip, Hip, Hooray!

* * *

"Ramsay scored the Maggies' third goal from the wing." Nothing wrong with the Magpies' wings.

* * *

"Jennings, Henson, Ramsay and Ferguson shone for Granville." Lead, kindly lights!

* * *

"Gowan was the best player of Gladstones." Gow-an strong.

* * *

"Phillips hit the cross-bar on one occasion." Oh, how spiteful!

Why the lady called her house Fernleigh was:

Because it contained only one Storey.

* * *

The name was painted on a Bat-ten.

* * *

The man with the furniture brought the Cartwright up to the gate and a Porter carried it in.

* * *

Balmain-Scottish were given a free and, the Scotchmen crowded round the Bar.

* * *

Sandy generally makes a rush when anything is forced.

* * *

The game was an eye-opener to many. Were the spectators recruited from the Blind Asylum?

* * *

Fairweather, of Granville, did not appear at his best last Saturday. No, but wet-weather scored pretty heavily.

* * *

Geo. Martin is troubled how to get the teams on the ground to time. Why not engage some of those leather-lunged youths from the ferry boats. "Urry on, please! Urry on, please!"

What the Metropolis needed in the inter-district matches was a forward who would score goals.

* * *

The youth upon the goal-line stood
When all his foes had fled.
His comrades lay upon the field;
All broken-limbed or dead.
His collar-bone was out of joint.
His ribs in fractures were.
His system so disorganised,
He scarce could breathe or stir.
But joy unmeasured lit his eye
And overwhelmed his soul.
And Soccerites bowed down to him.
For He had scored The Goal.

THE REFEREE INTRODUCTORY INTRODUCTORY.

The information on this page will in future be under the direction of the official representatives of the Referees' Association and J. McDougall ("Mac"), who is well known to supporters and players of the code, and has been connected with the game for many years in various positions, here and abroad.

All phases of the sport in general, but that appertaining to the very necessary feature of the game, the referee in particular, will be dealt with.

A desirable matter for just consideration will be the laws of the game from the spectators and players point of view, and this should help to clear up many affairs in dispute. In this regard, questions are invited, and will be answered officially. The Referees' Association will be consulted, and after debate its decision will be published. There is reason to expect greater harmony all round in the interests of the game, when the finer points are fully explained. Great benefit can be derived from a frank and free discussion as that mentioned above.

The official decisions of the British Football Association will also receive attention as they are received, and items of interest from the Referees' Association will be given due consideration.

Referees will at an early date, be seen with a new badge, to relieve the monotony of the white sweater in the form of a red shield, with the monogram, S.F.A., in black thereon, the colours of the Metropolis. (The design is by Mac.)

As it is desirable that readers should know something of the referees controlling the game, it is possible that a sketch of well-known "knights of the whistle" will be given from time to time, with a view to securing better conditions on the field of play, particularly as it must be remembered that referees are only human, and not supernatural, as some expect them to be. If the general public knew what a task is entailed in ably controlling the game by absolutely just decisions, gained by his knowledge and experience—and it must be borne in mind that the referee is no partisan, and is usually in a better position to judge the play, and he (like everyone) is not infallible—the referee would, no doubt, receive some consideration, at least, to his feelings.

It is necessary in the interests of the game that we should have referees, and those officiating should be given the respect due to them for their services. To fulfil all engagements, more referees are urgently wanted, and the Referees' Association appeals to old players to take up the whistle, and carry on the good work. A note to Jim Black, our able secretary, Sports Club, will receive immediate attention in this regard.

Next week a start on the Laws of the Game, Instructions to Players, from the "Official Hand-book," will be made.

REFEREES OF TO-DAY.

(By "CENTRE FORWARD.")

There has been a good deal of complaint in recent years by players who aver that there is a lamentable lack of uniformity in the interpretation of the rules by Metropolitan referees. Also that the game has been slowed up by the referee, who instead of ignoring small infringements, stop the game unnecessarily. One must admit there is a ground for complaint, and I propose here to briefly touch upon one or two matters which have come under my notice.

The laws of the game only provide, of course, for intentional breaches, and yet how very often do we see referees penalise for what are clearly unintentional breaches. Cases of handling the ball, tripping pushing, kicking, or holding an opponent may all on occasion, be considered accidental, and yet (and I must say the players and public are equally at fault, because there is often a unanimous appeal), the usual thing is to penalise the offending player irrespective of whether the breach is intentional or unintentional.

A matter that also calls for attention is the ignoring of linesmen by the referee, who should take them into his confidence, and make them feel that they are a part and parcel of the game.

The referee should, before the game commences, call the linesmen to him and first of all compare watches. Then he should satisfy himself that they know what to do when the ball goes into touch.

The linesmen decides, subject to the overruling power of the man in charge of the game, when the ball is out of play, and which side is entitled to the throw-in, or whether there should be a corner or a goal-kick.

Regarding the question of uniformity of decisions, there has been a lot of controversy in relation to the throw-in. The linesmen should first of all point with the flag to the spot where the ball went out, and then, keeping his flag down, and standing about one yard from the thrower, he should watch the feet of thrower, and the referee should watch the throw. Linesmen often stand close to the thrower; this is a mistake, as it is impossible for him in that position to watch either the throw-in or the feet. The linesman who keeps his flag down when the throw is about to be taken, raises it when the player at the delivery of the ball, does not keep a part of both feet on the line.

Another point worth noticing is that a player is penalised by some referees if he does not stand at right-angles to the touch-line when throwing in the ball. The rule simply says that a player must face the field of play when throwing in the ball. No angle is specified in the rules, and the interpretation given is palpably wrong and unfair to the players. Another point is that many referees forget that there is an advantage rule. Often a centre forward is partly tripped in the penalty area, and the whistle is blown for a penalty kick. The referee should have allowed the player to go on and score, otherwise in awarding the penalty kick, he may be penalising the unoffending player.

Note.—Questions are invited on the laws of the game.

Drummoyne v. Rozelle Rovers
(Black and White Stripes) (Green and Gold Stripes)

Referee—MR. McDOUGALL

THE LETTER BAG

Dear Sir,—Being a supporter of an "A" Grade team playing in the Junior Association, I attended Primrose Park on Saturday and was surprised to see the way in which players hamper the officials, who work hard every Saturday on this ground.

I refer to players who, despite belonging to the "A" Grade Competition, take the mean advantage of coming on to the ground by the back fences, and the Kogarah team and its supporters were guilty of this offence on Saturday last.

The Junior Association, through its hard-worked officials, have secured the enclosed ground, and surely the teams of the Association should be out to help, instead of hampering the progress of the game. If the sum of sixpence to go through the main gate is in the way my advice is to these supporters to "stay away," because they are not prepared to encourage the game in any way.—Yours, etc.,

"PRIMROSE."

Sir,—Eastern Suburbs last Saturday were without the services of that sturdy little player, Percy Harry, owing to an injury he sustained whilst playing in a practice match the previous week, which set up inflammation of the face and necessitated the removal of a couple of teeth. It is to be hoped that he will not be indisposed for any length of time.—Yours, etc.,

"E. SUBS."

Dear Sir,—Your article in last week's issue suggesting a lecture on the Laws of the Game is commendable. I would, however, suggest that Mr. A. Peaty be asked to lecture, as he is also a pleasing speaker, and well-liked by club secretaries and supporters generally.—Yours, etc.,

"VILLE."

[A lecture is what is required. They may be held regularly, after the first one is constituted. It does not matter whether the first is delivered by either Mr. Wright or Mr. Peaty, except that Mr. Wright is a member of the lecture committee, and no doubt will readily agree to the idea.—Ed.]

Dear Sir,—In response to your invitation re "Soccer News," to contribute, we are very pleased to send along a few items to let you know how we are progressing at Ibrox Park. We have the "Soccer News" on sale every Saturday, and are pushing it for all we are worth. We recognise it as a very necessary part in dispensing Soccer anecdotes and news all round. We heard on all sides complimentary remarks on the advent of the paper. Now, as regards Balmain Scottish, we are getting into our stride, and barring accidents, expect to finish the season at the head of our division.

Our goal-keeper, Davidson, who came from junior ranks, is playing a tip-top game. Sinclair and Bridges, the backs, are second to none in our division. Bridges, especially for his dash, and Sinclair for his strong kicking. The halves, Hay, Tait (late of Canterbury) and Cummings are settling down to a good game. The forwards with the captain, Angus Forbes as pivot, are getting into their stride. McAlpine and Hutcheson, the inside men, with Forbes, play the inside game to perfection. The wing men, Campbell and McLean, are also playing well. We will drop you a line from time to time, to let you know how we are getting on. Wishing success to the "Soccer News" and to the game.—Yours, etc.,

W. HAMILTON,

Hon. Sec. B.-Scot. F.C.

PROTEST DECISION.

AUBURN-CAMPSIE THISTLE.

The Protests and Disqualification Committee have dismissed the protest of Auburn against a decision of the referee in the match Auburn v. Campsie Thistles at Auburn, which was won by Campsie 3-2. It has, however decided, not to estreat the protest fee, as it was not considered either frivolous or groundless.

NEWCASTLE SOCCER

ELLIS CUP COMP.

In the Cup competition, Adamstown defeated Mayfield by 2 to nil at the Tramway ground last Saturday. The teams were:

Adamstown — A. Smith, goal-keeper; D. Williams and J. Davis, full-backs; P. Doyle, A. Lambert,

R. Pollock, half-backs; R. Wilson, D. McAlister, H. Johns, E. Bush, L. Bailey, forwards.

Mayfield—E. Brown, goal-keeper; H. Butcher and O. Sharp, full-backs; A. Oaten, F. Oaten, T. Paterson, half-backs; W. Cummings, A. Manderson, G. Bucklow, C. White, J. Gill, forwards.

Adamstown won the toss and elected to kick with the wind. Play was even for some time. Adamstown were repeatedly penalised for offside play. From an attack, Johns shot, but the goal-keeper, running out, enabled Bush to notch the first goal for Adamstown. Immediately after Adamstown attacked, and Johns, after side-stepping Patterson and Sharp, scored with a fast, high shot in the corner.

Lambert spoilt Adamstown's attack by handling the ball. The half-time scores were: Adamstown 2 to nil. From open play Johns had a shot, but missed by inches.

Mayfield, at this stage, livened up and forced the play. Bucklow headed and grazed the posts. Adamstown retaliated, and after some fine play, in which Bush and Wilson were prominent, the ball again just missed. Bucklow, for Mayfield, passed to Gill, who sent in a low shot, but Smith effected a brilliant save. When full-time sounded Mayfield was attacking.

The late fixture between Lillyfield United and Marrickville was productive of good football from the kick-off. Centre-forward Dunn led Lillyfield's vanguard towards their opponents' goal, and was unlucky in not scoring.

The play was transferred to the Lillyfield area, where Martin and Irwin rose to the occasion and defended ably. Dunn again got possession, and passed to Lilleblade, and with Hale and Kinkade supporting, gave a good display of short passing tactics from centre to left then back to centre and on to the right winger, who carried the ball to the Avoca's area, and then passed back to Dunn, who netted a good goal four minutes after the start.

Play was of an even character, and Ogle was called upon to save off many shots from the Lillyfield forwards. The Avoca forwards now woke up and led by Russell took play to their opponents' area where Martin conceded a corner. Benson took the kick and played the ball in front of Lillyfield's goal, Russell heading over the bar.

Before half-time Lilleblade, from a penalty, netted—2-0. The second half opened with Lillyfield on the defensive, the Avoca's forwards giving them a good deal of work.

Stevenson the Lilyfield goalie, won applause by the great shots which he was called upon to save. During the last quarter of an hour the play was very exciting, the ball travelling from goal to goal, both backs playing a great game. Before the final whistle went Dunn scored for Lilyfield, whilst Heagney, White and Russell did likewise for Avoca, the match thus ending in a draw.

REFEREES

A great miscarriage of justice is being served out to the Junior Association by the Appointment Board. On Saturday last no referees were appointed to Primrose Park, and only for Referee Hargett appearing on the scene as a spectator and Secretary Packer being on the ground there would have been no referees. Surely the Juniors are worth supporting, even though they have been denied representation in selecting of the referees. Could it not be arranged for one referee to take the second league games as is done in the Juniors, and thus help the game all round. Surely the "A" Grade

Junior have just as much right to demand a referee as a Second League. Why appoint two referees for one ground for Senior games whilst Juniors get none? Wake up members of the Appointment Board, and realise your responsibility to the Juniors! Realise that a player starts as a Junior; encourage those who are making our game. They will bear in mind that the "Juniors" are worthy of every encouragement and want it.

In conclusion, remember the Juniors have had a hard fight and are fighting hard to prove to our senior association that we can command a following, but if we are unable to secure an official referee for our enclosed ground, then we are going to look ridiculous to our supporters. Let us hope that this will be taken in the right spirit, and that the Juniors will fare better in the future.

METROPOLITAN JUNIORS.

"B" Grade.

Newtown Juveniles — always a team to be reckoned with—have secured three successive wins. A notable feature in the matches is the fact that while the Juveniles have netted 14 goals—no score has been registered against them.

Last week's win in the wet by goals to nil, against the City Y.M.C.A. was the result of perfect like precision and finish which can only be attained when the forwards possess complete understanding. The whole five figured among the scorers.
